Deaths

THOMAS J. MOORE.

At the time of his death, full sketches of the life and the services of Colonel Thomas J. Moore, of Spartanburg County, S. C., appeared in the secular papers of his State. By reason of his long, faithful and fruitful services to his church, it is fitting that the church papers be given information concerning his life and character and the esteem in which he was held by his brethren and co-workers. No more fitting tribute could be paid to his memory than that contained in the following minute adopted by Enoree Presbytery in session at Greer, S. C., October 1, 1919:

Whereas, it has pleased our heaven-
